

MBA Warhawks AAU

2017 Information Packet

WARHAWK CORE VALUES

The MBA Warhawks provides the opportunity for student athletes to gain invaluable experience at a high level of basketball. We hold our players to a high standard and expect them to abide by our core values. These values also apply to coaches, parents, and fans.

Respect...

- Parents, coaches, teammates, opponents, yourself, facilities, and the game of basketball. Exhibit excellent Sportsmanship.

Timeliness

- Be on time or earlier to all functions. Please call a coach if you are running late.

Attitude

- Bring a positive attitude. Attitude is contagious, in both ways!

Teamwork

- “Much can be accomplished by teamwork when no one is concerned about what gets credit.” John Wooden

“Some people want it to happen, some wish it would happen, others make it happen.” Michael Jordan

WARHAWK COACHING PHILOSOPHY

The MBA Warhawks coach's first priority is to set a positive example for the youth to follow. Any behavior or values we expect from an athlete must be expected from a coach. In the heat of competition we must not forget the ultimate goal is to teach the athletes.

DO...

- Help and encourage
- Build confidence
- Build team atmosphere
- Teach at all teachable moments even if you interrupt a drill
- Hold all athletes accountable
- Discipline when necessary
- Take athletes aside to give constructive criticism
- Provide positive energy

DO NOT...

- Curse or swear. Zero tolerance
- Put hands on an athlete in a negative manor
- Belittle or discourage an athlete
- Single out players in front of team
- Lose focus of job (Role model for youth)
- Create a negative energy

"I never let our players get satisfied, I never let our Coaches get satisfied, I was never satisfied. We can always do it better." -- John Wooden
